

Once Upon a Time in A City Not So Far Away in a Kingdom Where Books Rule.....

You are invited to attend the first Annual

FABLEFEST

Where reading really stacks up and elevates your imagination to think

Saturday November 14, 2009 from 11:00 AM to 6:00 PM in Cedar Park, Texas at Heritage Oak Park

Costumes are Highly Recommended! Princesses and Kings are Welcomed

Nothing touches the heart and engages the mind more than a good story or fable. The one-day Fablefest Festival offers a complete showcase of drama, performing arts, music, visual artistry, poetry, puppetry, storytelling, genealogy, science in all its art forms. Fablefest Festival is one of the only fairytale festivals to integrate the stories and teaching of many cultures and moral wisdoms in such a fun matter. There is no entry fee to experience the magic of the Fablefest Festival.

MAKE AN IMPACT!

Not only will this festival impact your opportunity to learn about fables, folklore, and stories from all over the world but 100% of all money raised from this event goes directly to the Cedar Park Public Library to pay for public reading programs, advanced technologies, and expand current library collections that you can enjoy for years to come. Dreams can come true.
